CHINOOK SALMON

Chinook Salmon Fishing is our Specialty. These Salmon are the most sought after fish that swim up the Columbia River. They are full of fight and fresh out of the ocean. This fishery offers the very best in quantities of catch and size of fish. There are always plenty of them to catch with weights from 15 to 50 lbs. Book now for the Ultimate Fishing Experience.

STEELHEAD

These Silver Bullets are the acrobats of the Pacific Northwest and are one of the most aggressive fish in our rivers. Numerous jumps and runs are common while getting them hooked. This is high energy, fast action fishing with an average catch rate of 4-10 per day. These fish are fighters and getting them in the boat is an experience you'll always remember.

STURGEON

This Columbia River fishery has unbelievable action. These awesome fighting fish are the largest freshwater fish in the world. Keepers range from 42 to 60 inches & Trophys can be anywhere from 6 to 12 feet long & can weigh 500 pounds. With average daily catch rates of 15 to 45 fish, you will catch your limit of Keepers when fishing the Columbia River. These awesome fish provide action & fun. Fishing for & catching one will give you memories that last forever.
